

WEDDING PLANNING ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA PTY CODE OF CONDUCT

- All members must abide by the code of conduct set by the WPAA in order to be a member.
- All WPAA members must hold a certified wedding planner certificate to be registered with the WPAA.
- All WPAA members must understand that we have the right to cancel any membership, If you are found in breach of the code of conduct.
- If we receive more than 3 complaints and believe you have been negligent we will have to cancel your membership with us.
- All WPAA members must be truthful and transparent in all business dealings with suppliers and prospective clients.
- All WPAA members are encouraged to give their clients an evaluation form for feedback.
- All WPAA members must provide truthful and accurate information with respect to advertising.
- All WPAA members must uphold each other's businesses and must not defame any other Wedding Planner business.
- All photos on the site are owned by wedding suppliers who have advertised on the WPAA site. WPAA takes no responsibility for copyright.